

EVENTS – NATIONAL POETRY MONTH, APRIL 2010

Good Morning Everyone!

Last week we dedicated our Delta Renaissance Cultural Arts segment to the always-colorful “Mississippi Slim.” And because we love him so much we are doing it again. Mississippi Slim, we love you and this town will never be the same.

And now your cultural arts updates....

A Ribbon Cutting and Open House for the new Welcome Center Museum is today. Several events are scheduled beginning with the Ribbon Cutting, at 10:00am and ending with a “Business After Hours” event from 5 – 7 pm.

The event is free and the public is invited. The Washington County Welcome Center is located on Highway 82 West. For more information, please contact the Washington County CVB at 334-2711.

FRIDAY April 23rd,

The 10th Annual Double Decker Festival will be celebrated at 7:00 p.m. in the Tupelo Room of Barnard Observatory on the University of Mississippi campus. The event is an evening of song and stories for adults, who would like to take their children out for a lot of literary fun! For more information call Rebecca Jernigan at 662/234-0550.
